PART B – FILL-IN TASKS

III Fill in the blanks with APPROPRIATE VERB FORMS (finite, non-finite, modalized, perfective, progressive, active or passive) of the verbs in brackets so that you get grammatically correct and meaningful sentences which are appropriate for the given context. Pay attention to word order and spelling. It is NOT acceptable to add any other word (e.g., pronoun, noun, etc.). The first one (0) has been done for you. 17 x 1 point = 17 points

The great ship, Titanic, set sail for New York from Southampton on April 10th, 1912. Even by modern standards, the 66,000-ton Titanic (0) was (be) a colossal ship. At that time, however, it was not only the largest ship that (1) _____ (ever, build), but it (2) _____ (also, regard) as unsinkable, for it had sixteen watertight compartments. It was claimed that even if two of these compartments (3) _____ (flood), it (4) _____ (modal, float).

Four days after setting out, while the Titanic (5) _____ (sail) across the icy waters of the North Atlantic, a huge iceberg (6) _____ (spot) by a look-out. The great ship turned sharply to avoid a direct collision and narrowly missed the immense wall of ice which rose over 30 meters out of the water beside it. Suddenly, there was a slight trembling sound from below, and the captain (7) _____ (go) down to see what (8) _____ (happen). By the time he toured the damaged area of the Titanic, water (9) _____ (already, enter) five of its sixteen watertight compartments and the ship was sinking rapidly. The order to abandon ship (10) _____ (give) and hundreds of people plunged into the icy water, most of them (11) _____ (freeze) to death.

Today, the wreck of the Titanic is still lying at a depth of about 3,800 meters near the coast of Newfoundland. Scientists believe that by 2030 the ship (12) _____ (disappear) completely thanks to bacteria covering the wreckage. Although the wreck of the Titanic will eventually deteriorate, the tragic sinking of this great liner will always be remembered, for it went down on its first voyage with heavy loss of lives. The tragedy, however, is believed (13) _____ (be) avoidable. Namely, if there (14) _____ (be) enough lifeboats for everybody, 1,500 lives (15) _____ (modal, save). The tragic story remains in the public consciousness as a cautionary tale about the perils of human hubris: Titanic's creators believed they (16) _____ (construct) an unsinkable ship that (17) _____ (modal, negative, defeat) by the laws of nature.

IV Adapt the form of the words in brackets to the context so that you get a grammatical and meaningful text. All the words in brackets have to be adapted to a new form and spelt correctly. DO NOT use the –ING form. The first one (0) has been done for you.

8 x 1 point = 8 points

Robin Hood was an (0) adventurous (ADVENTURE) hero of a series of English ballads, some of which date from as early as the 14th century. He was a (1) _____ (REBEL) outlaw, and many of the most striking episodes in the tales about him show him fighting (2) _____ (JUSTICE) and oppression with his band of companions. He is usually depicted as a heroic archer in English folklore, who (3) _____ (SUPPOSE) robbed the rich and gave to the poor. A good deal of the impetus for his revolt against authority stemmed from popular (4) _____ (SATISFY) with those laws of the forest that restricted hunting rights. His most frequent enemy was the Sheriff of Nottingham, who (5) _____ (FORCE) the oppressive forest laws.

The early ballads reveal the cruelty that was an (6) _____ (ESCAPE) part of medieval life. For instance, Robin Hood is often portrayed as the enemy of the ambitious Prince John and at the same time the ally of his brother, the imprisoned Richard Lionheart, who eventually died in captivity. Numerous attempts have been made to prove that there was a historical Robin Hood. However, none of the various claims identifying him with a particular historical figure has gained much support. In all (7) _____ (LIKELY), the outlaw's (8) _____ (EXIST) may never have been anything but legendary.
